However, other individuals such as the Chair of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the Group People Director and external advisers may be invited to attend and speak at meetings (or parts thereof) of the Committee. Other persons may be called upon or shall be able to speak by prior arrangement with the Chair of the Committee.

7.2 The draft minutes of the meetings of the Committee shall be agreed with the Chair of the Committee and then circulated to all members of the Committee and, once approved, to the Board and the Company Secretary unless a conflict of interest exists or, exceptionally, it would be inappropriate to do so in the opinion of the Chair of the Committee.

8. ENGAGEMENT WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Chair of the Committee shall be available at the Annual General Meeting of the Company and be prepared to answer any shareholder questions arising from the Committee's annual report of the Company's remuneration policy and practices, which will form part of the Company's annual report to shareholders, and generally on the Committee's activities and achievement. In addition, the Chair of the Committee should also seek engagement with shareholders on significant matters related to the Committee's areas of responsibility.

9. DUTIES

The Committee shall, on behalf of the Board and the shareholders of the Company:

- 9.1 be responsible for determining, in accordance with the principles and provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code (the Code), the policy for directors' remuneration and setting remuneration for the Chair of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, all other executive directors of the Company, as well as the Company Secretary, members of the Executive Committee and any other senior management positions as the Board may determine from time to time (together, the Executive Group). No director or senior manager shall be involved in any decisions as to their own remuneration. The Board itself, or, where required by the Company's Articles of Association (the Articles), the shareholders should determine the remuneration of the non-executive directors, within the limits set in the Articles;
- 9.2 in determining the remuneration policy, take into account relevant legal and regulatory requirements, the provisions and recommendations of the Code, associated guidance, institutional investor guidelines and any other factors which it deems necessary. The objective of such policy shall be to attract, retain and motivate executive management of the quality required to run the Company successfully without paying more than is necessary, having regard to views of shareholders and other stakeholders;
- 9.3 in determining executive director remuneration policy and practices, address the following:

 - 9.3.4 predictability: the range of possible values of rewards to individual directors and any other limits or discretions should be identified and explained at the time of approving the policy;
 - 9.3.5 proportionality: the link between individual rewards, the delivery of strategy and the long-term performance of the Company should be clear. Outcomes should not reward poor performance; and
 - 9.3.6 alignment to culture: incentive schemes should drive behaviours consistent with the Company's purpose, values and strategy;
- 9.4 when setting remuneration policy for executive directors, review and have regard to (i) pay and employment conditions and remuneration trends across the Company or Group, especially when determining annual salary increases; and (ii) the alignment of workforce incentives and rewards with culture;

- 9.6 consider and, if thought appropriate, engage with the Group's workforce to explain how the remuneration of the executive directors aligns with the wider pay policy of the Group;
- 9.7 within the terms of the agreed remuneration policy and in consultation with the Chair of the Board and/or Chief Executive Officer as appropriate, review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policy;
- 9.8 consider and determine all elements of the remuneration of the Executive Group, including:

 - 9.8.3 discretionary payments;
 - 9.8.4 pension contributions;
 - 9.8.5 benefits in kind; and
 - 9.8.6 share options and other share awards,
- and in doing so consider the choice of objectively determined financial, non-financial and strategic measures, as well as the exercise of independent judgement, taking account of Company and individual performance and wider circumstances;
- 9.9 consider and determine the remuneration related provisions of the service agreements of the Executive Group (in particular the term, any notice period (which shall not normally exceed one year) and compensation commitment on early termination) to ensure that any payments that may be made under such agreements do not reward poor performance and that the duty to mitigate loss is fully recognised;
- 9.10 ensure that remuneration schemes and policies for executive directors contain, where appropriate, malus and clawback provisions in prescribed circumstances, such as payments based on erroneous or misleading data, misconduct, misstatement of accounts, serious reputational damage and corporate failure;
- 9.11 approve any payment to, and/or any non-cash benefit to be provided to, or for the benefit of any member of the Executive Group and any other terms and conditions to apply on termination of that person's employment (once the decision to dismiss or reach agreement to terminate employment has been taken by the Board);
- 9.12 approve the design of, and determine targets for, any performance related pay schemes operated by the Company for the Executive Group and consider setting a limit in monetary terms for what it considers is a reasonable reward for individual executives;
- 9.13 establish and review, as the Committee considers necessary, key performance indicators, gender and other pay reporting metrics;
- 9.14 in relation to any incentive plan for the Executive Group, including cash bonus plans and any share-based plans:

- 9.14.6 exercise any discretion specified in the rules of such plans and generally oversee the administration of such plans offered to members of the Executive Group;
- 9.14.7 ensure the plans include provisions that would enable the Company to recover sums paid or withhold the payment of any sum, and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so; and
- 9.14.8 determine each year whether any awards will be made under the plans and, if so, the overall amount of such awards, the individual awards to members of the Executive Group and the performance targets to be used.
- 9.15 consider and review the terms of any new equity plans for the Executive Group;
- 9.16 oversee the administration of all aspects of any all-employee share scheme operated by or to be established by the Company in accordance with the rules of that scheme and any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements and with any requirements of His Majesty's Revenue and Customs and the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland;
- 9.17 where required by law to do so, ensure that any remuneration payment or payment for loss of office to any current or former Chair or executive director of the Board is consistent with the relevant directors' remuneration policy that has been approved by the shareholders as required by the Companies (Directors' Remuneration Policy and Directors' Remuneration Report) Regulations 2019, the Companies Act 2006, the Listing Rules of the UK Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") and all other relevant laws and regulations;

- 9.20 be exclusively responsible for establishing the selection criteria, selecting, appointing and setting the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Committee and to commission or purchase any reports, surveys or information which it deems necessary at the expense of the Company, however, the Committee should avoid designing pay structures based solely on benchmarking to the market or on the advice of remuneration consultants;
- 9.21 determine the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for each member of the Executive Group including ensuring that only basic salary is pensionable and that the pension contribution rates for executive directors, or payments in lieu, are aligned with those available to the workforce;

- 9.22 oversee any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Company or Group;
- 9.23 ensure that remuneration schemes promote long term shareholdings by executive directors that support alignment with long-term shareholder interests, with share awards subject to a total vesting and holding period of at least five years, and a formal policy for post-employment shareholding requirements encompassing both unvested and vested shares;
- 9.24 design remuneration schemes and policies and practices to support strategy and promote long term sustainable success, with executive remuneration aligned to the Company's purpose and values, clearly linked to the successful delivery of the Company's long term strategy, and that enable the use of discretion to override formulaic outcomes, include provisions that would enable the Company to recover and/or withhold sums or share awards and specify the circumstances in which it would be appropriate to do so;
- 9.25 agree the policy for authorising claims for expenses from members of the Board; and
- 9.26 consider whether or not and to what extent the views of employees and shareholders should be obtained in relation to the formulation of the executive directors' remuneration policy.
